WV Democratic Women Go to Washington Large Delegation to Attend National Convention & Support Local Candidate

Charleston, W.Va. – The West Virginia Federation of Democratic Women (WVFDW) is sending more than 40 members to the National Federation of Democratic Women (NFDW) convention to be held on May 18-22 in Washington, D.C. Ladies from 11 West Virginia counties (Braxton, Cabell, Gilmer, Harrison, Jackson, Kanawha, Lewis, Marion, Mercer, Monongalia, & Wood) will be participating, in part, to support the candidacy of Monongalia County Clerk Carye Blaney for 1st Vice President of the NFDW.

“We are very excited to send such a large delegation to the national convention,” WVFDW President Belinda Biafore said. “Democratic Women are excited for the election this year and we are eager to prepare for 2012 too.”

At the NFDW Convention participants will meet with numerous female Democratic elected officials from across the nation, take part in campaign training workshops, hold their election of officers and visit the White House.
